1969 is Year for Johnson Rd. Work

GC Council Authorizes
Planning for Section
South of Pontoon Rd.

Paving of Johnson road—at least from Carlson avenue to Franklin avenue—may become a reality by the middle of 1969. Based on motor vehicle estimated receipts and expenditures during the intervening 18 to 20 months, sufficient funds should be available by that time, it was reported to the city council Monday night by Alderman Johnson, chairman of the Street committee.

Estimated cost of the one section (a 1964 figure) is $253,000, while the estimated cost of the section from Franklin avenue around the curve to Pontoon road is $255,000.

34-Foot Pavement
The improvement is to be a 34-foot paved street with curbs and gutters and drainage. Only the Carlson to Franklin avenue section has been planned to date, but the council adopted Monday night a resolution to allocate $80,000 for the overall planning for the entire roadway. The resolution is being forwarded to the state highway department for approval.

Dates and costs were provided by the city motor fuel tax engineering firm of Research, Planning Design & Associates, who figured the city should have $287,800 MFT funds by May 1969.

If the city should start its MFT priority list for the $35,000 improvements planned for Michigan and Troy avenues, the engineer said, the Johnson road project could be advanced two months. There was no indication the city would start those two streets.

Review of MFT Figures
Reviewing the MFT figures, the engineering firm pointed out that on Jan. 1, 1967, the city had a balance of $191,000, and that income in allocations for the year should total $275,000, while expenditures amount to $184,000 for arterial street maintenance and other projects, giving a balance next Jan. 1 of $282,600.

The 1968 allotment is estimated at $228,600 because of the reduction in the city's population, and expenditures are planned to include $145,000 as the city's share of the Namekiki road improvement and $100,000 for arterial street maintenance.

The Michigan-Troy avenues improvement would cost $35,000, and the 1969 arterial street maintenance another $100,000, but 1969 income up to May should add $126,400 to provide $287,800 that would be enough for one section of Johnson road.

Auto License Sale Starts Here Friday

Across-the-counter sale of 1968 auto license plates will begin tomorrow at two Granite City banks—the First Granite City National Bank and the Granite City Trust & Savings Bank.

The license plates are to be sold during regular banking hours. The deadline for display of the new red and white license plates will be Feb. 15.

Auto Hits Light Pole

While pulling into Bob's service station at Johnson and Namekiki roads, an auto driven by Clarence W. Wieland, 3017 Myrtle avenue, struck a light pole at 10:55 p.m. Wednesday.

Survives Hill 875 Ordeal

Pfc Perry Ramsey Located In 106th Hospital in Japan

Prayers for the safety of Pfc Perry Ramsey, 18, were answered for Mr. and Mrs. Waid Ramsey, 16474 Market street, when a telegram was received Monday night advising them he had been located by the Army in the 106th General Hospital, Yokohama, Japan.

The Madison serviceman was reported missing Nov. 20 on Hill 875 at Dak To, where three Granite City GIs were killed in the fierce hill battle last week. All were serving with the 173rd Airborne Brigade.

The Madison youth's stepmother said the telegram stated he was in serious condition from fragmentation wounds and burns and that his condition was improving. A telegram today said Pfc Ramsey had been taken off the serious list.

Pfc Ramsey was reported missing on the same day as Pfc Richard Kimball, 24, whose wife, Constance, received Nov. 20, while the estimated cost of the section from Franklin avenue around the curve to Pontoon road is $255,000.

To Return to U. S.
The wounded Madison serviceman was expected to be returned to the United States, but his date of departure from the hospital in Japan had not been contained in the telegram mentioned in a telephone conversation he had with his mother, Mrs. Bernice Wilder of Florissant, Mo., who telephoned him Tuesday as did his father. His parents are divorced.

Mr. Ramsey is talking to his son by phone, learned that he had been in the same unit on the hill with the three Granite Cityans who were killed. "He told us he was 'fine' and hoped soon to get home," Pfc Ramsey was reluctant to talk of his experiences on the hill.

"We're all very grateful Pfc Ramsey was found alive and is doing so well in the hospital," the father said.

It was learned that Pfc Ramsey received multiple fragmentation wounds to both legs and back, hips and right arm and second and third degree burns to both legs while engaged in combat action against the enemy on Nov. 20.

He was initially treated at the 71st Evacuation Hospital and

Local Vietnam Vet Describes Area of Dak To

A description of the Dak To area of South Vietnam was provided by the Press-Record by Warrant Officer Michael S. Lopez of Glen Carbon, a former reservist in the Vietnam area and a photographer for the Press-Record who returned to the United States earlier this month.

Lopez, a helicopter pilot, said he was in Dak To about this time last year. Last week, three Granite City soldiers were killed and a Madison youth wounded on Hill 875 at Dak To.

"My unit, the 129th Assault Helicopter Company, had just moved to Kontum, about 14 miles away from Dak To, and we were supporting the 101st Airborne Division," Lopez related.

"I guess we were lucky, for it was rather quiet here," he said. "The Viet Cong had a large force in the area and was to stage a large operation."

"The VC apparently was ready to fight, for we didn't make much contact with them. They just seemed to disappear. We did find many of their base camps, and in fact one camp still had a cooking fire burning."

"A one word description of the Dak To area is 'hairsty.' That means to the GI that it

Boycott Ends at Madison Schools

Attendance is Normal
Wednesday; Meetings
Now being Planned

(Related story on page 47)

The boycott of Madison schools by white students ended yesterday—almost as suddenly as it began.

Attendance at the Madison high school, the junior high school and Louis Baer and Harris grade schools returned to normal immediately.

The office of Raymond Drapich, Madison school superintendent, reported only 61 students absent at the high school as classes convened yesterday morning. The high school has a total enrollment of 750 students—450 white and 300 Negro. Absenteeism of 61 students is considered normal for this time of year, school officials said.

Classes began at the junior high school yesterday with only 22 absent from an enrollment of 266, at Louis Baer grade school with 37 absent from an enrollment of 430, and at Harris grade school with 28 absent from an enrollment of 580. The same situation "with some improvement" was reported at the schools this morning.

Boycott Called Off
The boycott was called off late Tuesday afternoon by an announcement of Leo Fyles, spokesman for an eight-member white parents committee that has been spearheading the boycott movement since it began Nov. 20. The announcement followed a committee meeting.

No details as to how the decision was reached were given. The committee previously had announced the boycott would remain in effect until it could bring about the resignation of the seven-man Madison school board.

George Darling, another member of the committee, said he had "no comment" when asked if the committee would stand on its demand for the resignations of all seven school board members. The demand was presented at a meeting of the school board Monday night.

Fyles said the committee will continue to operate as an active organization and indicated it has further plans. He said the committee was talking "a day or two to rest," but did not indicate whether this means the boycott might be resumed.

Protested Reinstatement
The boycott began at the opening of the school week on Monday, Nov. 20, after the Madison school board on the previous Friday had reversed an earlier decision and voted to reinstate 17 Negro athletes who had been suspended for boycotting football practice.

The athletes were protested the reinstatement. In a retaliatory move, the white parents kept their children out of school as approximately 500.

Hearing Dec. 5 On Petition for Chouteau Village

A hearing on the proposed incorporation of an 1146-acre area of Chouteau township as the village of Chouteau will take place at 11 a.m. next Tuesday, Dec. 5, in Courtroom No. 1 at the Madison county courthouse in Edwardsville.

An order scheduling the hearing was entered Monday afternoon by Chief Circuit Judge James O. Monroe Jr. The judge who will conduct it has not yet been assigned.

The hearing will determine the adequacy of a 55-signature petition filed Nov. 20 and also whether the proposed area constitutes a village and meets the legal requirements for incorporation.

Requirements include territory not exceeding two square miles, with at least 400 residents in permanent dwellings, situated not less than a mile from existing municipalities. Population has been estimated at 2300 to 2500. Two square miles total 1280 acres. The horseshoe-shaped boundary line described in the petition provided by Attorney Francis J. Manning is more than a mile from Granite City and over two miles from Hartford.

If there is court approval, an election on whether or not to create a village would be scheduled. If that vote carried, a second election would be necessary to choose village officers.

The village has the same municipal powers as a city but would not have wards. It would be governed by a village president and six trustees.

A public meeting to clarify legal aspects of incorporation and annexation has been called for 2 p.m. Sunday at the Mitchell parish hall by residents who have named Arthur Boyle as acting chairman.

New Road to SIU-SW At Sunset Hill Opens

The new state access road from Route 157 at Sunset Hill to the south entrance to Southern Illinois University was opened yesterday at 1 p.m. yesterday.

Barricades, caution signs and detour signs were removed from Route 157 and the new road entry by Hoeft Bros. Construction Co. of Belleville which built the new $966,000 roadway.

The 1.4 miles of four-lane highway connects with the university entrance—University Avenue—at the southern edge of the campus near the point where the Illinois Terminal Railroad crosses Bluff road.

The connection is near St. Paul's United Church of Christ on Bluff road.

Frontage Roads Available
Robert Kronst, district engineer of the French Village highway office, pointed out that frontage roads are available for people living in the area, and for members of the church.

Construction for that part of the road being built by SIU-SW is being done by Bituminous Fuel & Oil Co. of East St. Louis.

Kronst said the new intersection at Route 157 probably will be in use from five to eight years before it becomes a new cloverleaf interchange.

An anticipated increase in the amount of traffic to SIU-SW is the principal reason that the new intersection will not be sufficient after several years.

The future interchange would begin near the Terminal tracks on the Mitchell road and angle northeast toward the cemetery at the top of Sunset Hill, with a cloverleaf where it crosses the new access road.

Charge Politics In New GC Fire Rule

Halt in Fire Service
of 'Grave Concern',
Namekiki Board Told

Withdrawal of Granite City fire protection from areas outside the city limits is a "planned political power move" to force Namekiki areas to annex to Granite City, Namekiki township officials charged in a special session board meeting Tuesday night.

The charges came in a discussion by the town board and a group of township residents of means of providing fire protection to heavily populated districts of Namekiki township which the Granite City fire department has been responding to alarms.

Granite City council members on Nov. 20 voted to halt further runs outside the city limits, thus cutting off fire protection in the heavily populated subdivisions of Miracle Manor, Namekiki Acres, Bellemeade Place, Dawn Place, Northland Estates, Wellington Heights and Maryville Heights. There are about 350 homes in these areas, it was pointed out.

Of Grave Concern
Harry Briggs, Namekiki township supervisor, said the matter was of "grave concern" to the township because it leaves residents' and commercial property in the areas outside of the Long Lake Fire district without protection. The Long Lake district is in Namekiki township, but its territory primarily is in and around Pontoon Beach.

"As I see this," Briggs told the meeting, "it is strictly a power play by Granite City to force the people in these areas to annex to Granite City. I noticed that a recent editorial (Press-Record) said we are trying to block annexation. We are trying to block anything. We are trying to do what the people want. If the people want to annex, we can do so by filing out a petition."

John Karlechik, town clerk of Namekiki township and a trustee of the Long Lake fire district, announced that the Long Lake Volunteer Fire Department had agreed to provide protection for the areas involved "on a temporary basis" until residents in the unprotected districts, or the township, can work out a solution to the problem.

Karlechik said the fire department approved the plan in a special meeting held Monday night with the provision that fire calls in these districts were made "if the equipment is available," and that arrangements be made for payment of each fire call made by the Long Lake fire department contracts its regular service to the Long Lake fire district. Residents would be required to serve those interests first, Karlechik explained.

Lists 3 Alternatives
Three alternatives were listed by Nick Vassileff, township attorney, as possible solutions on a more permanent basis. These include the formation of a new fire district within the unprotected area, annexation to the present Long Lake fire district, or negotiations with insurance representatives with a view to increasing the present $100 payment for fire calls provided in fire insurance riders in policies held by residents in incorporated areas. Vassileff suggested that an increase in the fee might make it possible to contract with Granite City for continued protection.

Organization of a new district or annexation to the Long Lake district would require an election in either case, the attorney said. If a new district were organized encompassing the unprotected areas, Vassileff explained, the district, opened

W. T. Grant Store Expanding With $138,000 Addition

The W. T. Grant Co. store at Namekiki Village shopping center is being expanded with 20,000 square feet of sales space to be added to the present 75,000 square feet.

Melvin Gillie, store manager, said yesterday the volume of business at the store resulted in the need to expand the sales area. Work on the $138,000 addition at the rear of the present store was started this week by Leo Watson Construction Co. with a $138,000 building permit issued by the city.

When the expansion is completed, the store will have 95,000 sq. ft. The store's staff is expected to be increased from the present 112 employees to 140.

The project, the new addition will make the store

L-shaped. Additional entrances will be provided at the rear with the opening of the enlarged sales area. The expansion will not disrupt the present operation of the store, until the move into the new area.

The only one department to remain where it is, and 34 others will be relocated, he said.

"We're not adding any merchandising lines; this added space is needed to increase the departments in our present store. Business and sales are so good, we've outgrown the present facilities."

"In fact," Gillie said, "we outgrew them almost a year ago and have been planning for this expansion."

The store opened Nov. 4, 1964.

First Measurable Snow of Season Hits Quad-City Area

A meeting of the West Granite Youth Development group will be held at 7:30 p.m. Monday at Washington school with Donald Hornberger of the Illinois Youth Commission in charge.

The group plans to start a house-to-house survey to determine the number of children and gather other data for creating a youth center in the area. The survey is to be conducted by volunteers from West Granite.

Chambers is active in many civic, church and philanthropic organizations. He served as co-chairman of the annual Arts and Education Sustaining Fund Campaign which just exceeded its goal for the first time in its five-year history, and is general chairman of the St. Louis Symphony capital fund drive.

Irish Dance Troupe Available to Groups

Authentic Irish dances are being performed in this region by a group of young people interested in obtaining requests for further appearances from Quad-City organizations.

Called the O'Sullivan Irish Dancers, the children are based in East St. Louis. They do not charge for their programs, change for their programs, many of which have been presented at gatherings aiding charitable causes.

Irish costumes are worn, and the dances performed include the Irish jig, Irish reel, the hornpipe and Irish group dances, the latter similar to American square dancing.

But despite the name of the troupe and despite the subject of its activities, it includes many non-Irish. Among the members are youths of Polish and Greek descent.

Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius O'Sullivan serve as sponsors and can be contacted at 873-1895. O'Sullivan is a lieutenant on the East St. Louis police department and his wife, the former Virginia Halloran, is the sister of Vincent Halloran, former Press-Record staff member.

The group, which takes part in national dance competition, entertains primarily on Friday and Saturday evenings and Sunday afternoons but on some occasions has been able to schedule programs on weekday evenings.

Although open to additional engagements, the O'Sullivan Irish Dancers already have their schedule partially full during the weeks prior to one of the 1968 holidays—St. Patrick's Day.

Mrs. Johnnie Mathis, 30, Is Found Dead

Mrs. Johnnie Lucille Mathis, 30, a local resident until three months ago, was found dead in the basement of her home on Graine drive, Rural Route Five, Edwardsville, Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Mathis' husband, Luther, a Granite City Steel Co. employee, discovered his wife's body hanging in the basement when he returned home from work at 3:25 p.m. She was pronounced dead at the scene by Deputy Coroner Hays Mallory of Edwardsville, who said death probably occurred after 1 p.m. Tuesday.

Mrs. Mathis was believed to be suffering from extreme nervousness and had been under the care of a Granite City physician. No notes were found in the home. An inquest is pending.

The couple had moved into their newly-built home late this summer. Previously, they resided on Venice avenue. It was reported that Mr. and Mrs. Mathis recently placed their new residence on a sale and were planning to return to the local community to live.

A native of Dover, Tenn., Mrs. Mathis was a beautician and had been employed at a local beauty salon prior to the birth of the couple's two-year-old son, Michael. She was an active member of the Second Baptist Church here and taught Sunday school classes in the primary department.

Beside her husband and son, Mrs. Mathis is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Lemons of Dover, Tenn. A brother also survives.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow at Dover, Tenn.

500 Being Summoned Over Parking Tickets

The Granite City magistrate's court and police department are issuing summons this week to delinquent parking meter violators who have failed to pay fines on more than 500 parking tickets.

Magistrate Mateosian is setting an appearance date for Dec. 27, starting at 9 a.m., for violators to appear in court.

Delinquent violators who pay their fines before receiving the summons will be assessed the regular fee of $2, the judge said, otherwise they will be fined $5 plus $5 costs by the court. The maximum fine is $100 and costs.

The judge also said that he is issuing warrants for the arrest of several others who have ignored summons sent to them previously.

Champion Cahokia Places 4 on 10th All-Midwestern Grid Team

Undeclared in Midwestern Conference football play in 1967, the Cahokia Comanches captured four of the 11 positions on the Press-Record's all-conference team, selected by the coaches of the conference.

The 10th annual all-Midwestern team also includes three members of the runner-up Bethalto squad, three players on third-place Roxana and one member of the fifth-place Dupu team.

The voting system provides for each coach to omit his own players in the balloting. A defensive all-star squad also was chosen this season, along with second teams and honorable mention designations.

Cahokia placed six gridgers on the all-star team two years ago and had five representatives on the all-Midwestern team a year ago.

Studer, Hammond Repeat
With the previous team consisting of nine seniors and two juniors, there were only two repeat winners this season. Quarterback Ricci Stotler and Halfback Ken Hammond, both of Bethalto.

Now seniors, Stotler and Hammond along with eight other 1967 all-stars have now completed their high school football eligibility. The lone exception is all-star Fullback Paul Webber of Dupu, a junior.

Coaches participating in the balloting were Ed Hartweg of Bethalto, Gene Muzzarelli of Cahokia, Paul Stuart of Dupu, Frank Prechal of Highland, Harold Scheibel of Madison, Mo. Tschamen of Roxana and Bob Catalpa of Triad.

Descriptions of the all-conference gridiron athletes follow:

ENDS—Cahokia's Tony Moravec, a co-captain of his team, played effectively on both offense and defense. Not extremely fast, he nevertheless ran pass patterns to perfection, snaring aerials that garnered over 400 yards. He was credited with exerting outstanding team effort and accuracy.

DAN DONA of Roxana, also a hard hitter, combined both speed and weight, leading the blocking on end sweeps and also opening up holes through the middle. He also was adept at protecting the quarterback during attempts to pass.

CENTER—Dan Faigle of Cahokia displayed quickness and agility. He ran near the top among his fellow players in effort and consistency.

QUARTERBACK—Bethalto's Ricci Stotler ran for 10 touchdowns and 381 yards in 70 carries and also passed for another 10 touchdowns, completing 72 of 116 passes for 928 yards. In his spare time he kicked off 45 times, averaging 47 yards; punted 24 times, averaging nearly 37 yards; kicked 18 extra points; and intercepted four passes, accounting for two of his ten touchdowns.

HALFBACKS—Skip Bailey of Cahokia was a dangerous runner on pitchouts and off-tackle plays, averaging more than six yards each time he carried the ball. He scored nine touchdowns and accumulated over 900 yards rushing.

Leadership.
Scott Davis caught eight Roxana touchdown passes and blocked well on offense and defense. Displaying deceptiveness and determination, he intercepted many enemy passes as a cornerback.

TACKLES—John Sticht helped make Roxana's offensive line formidable and, as a defensive cornerback, had the ability to read enemy plays almost before they happened. He also is a top wrestler.

DAVE BLISSENBACH of Cahokia bolstered the middle of the line for the only squad that completed the season without a Midwestern Conference defeat. He shared with Sticht and Hammond the distinction of being the heaviest all-conference player.

GUARDS—Bethalto's Steve Wall was the best blocker on a team that came close to capturing the championship. Also a wrestler, he more than held his own in the rugged contact opposing lines clashed.

DAN DONA of Roxana, also a hard hitter, combined both speed and weight, leading the blocking on end sweeps and also opening up holes through the middle. He also was adept at protecting the quarterback during attempts to pass.

Eagles Aerie, Park Teams Honored

The eighth annual Granite City park district sports award banquet last night at GCHS attracted 556 persons and honored 92 teams in baseball, softball, basketball and flag football as well as Stanley Hecht, president of Eagles Aerie 1126.

Highlights were brief talks by three St. Louis football Cardinals, Quarterback Jim Hart, Lineman Ken Gray and Pat Fisher, defensive specialist, and an address on "Faith" by Jay Randolph, radio voice of the Cardinal grid team.

Spelling out the title of his talk, Randolph said, "F stands for freedom, cornerstone of democracy. We don't want to take it for granted."

"A means ability. All people have some type of ability, although not the same type. Some of you are good baseball players, while others are better at football. It all depends on your ability."

"I stands for individuality. Always aim for the right goal in life. Don't just be one of the gang if you don't agree with what the gang is doing. Be yourself."

"T represents tolerance. Try always to get along with people, and you'll find that most will try to get along with you. "H stands for honor. Without this trait, none of us can exist in today's world. Honor is like a mirror. Give to it, and it will reflect back."

Randolph left in a helicopter, which had landed on the GCHS football field, in order to broadcast a St. Louis Blues hockey game a short time later.

Eagles Sponsorship Praised Hecht accepted the annual appreciation award of the park district. During a time when managers have become harder to find, the Eagles have sponsored three baseball teams and two football squads and have also furnished managers, some of whom have supervised two or three teams simultaneously in order that more youngsters could participate. It was noted.

Park Supt. Harold Brown received a citation from the Illinois Parks and Recreation Department for his leading role in the state park board association meeting held in this area in September.

Granite City PRESS-RECORD Page 8 Thurs., Nov. 30, 1967

Clarence Henry and Paul Burnett received service awards for serving as coaches and managers in the park recreation program for the past nine years.

Park President Barry Loman was toastmaster and trophies were awarded to successful teams of the past year. The professional athletes stayed afterward to sign autographs. Dal Maxwell, baseball shortstop scheduled to attend, was unexpectedly called out of town.

SALVATION ARMY CAPT. Harold F. Thomas (right) presents the names of needy children to James Jeffries, Granite City Jaycee president. Jaycee members will furnish the local youngsters with clothing items or toys, using proceeds from the eighth annual "Bowling Sweepstakes."

Children to Benefit

JC Bowling Sweepstakes To Begin Here Monday

The eighth annual "Bowling Sweepstakes" sponsored by the Granite City Jaycees will get under way Monday evening at the Brunswick Tri Mor and Bowland lanes, according to Boyd Presley, Jaycee sweepstakes chairman.

Jaycee volunteers will be on hand at both bowling lanes starting Monday and continuing each evening next week to sign up league bowlers for the contest, the chairman said. A $1 entrant fee is contributed toward the annual benefit by each contestant, he said.

Proceeds will be used towards several community projects, including a $200 cash gift to St. Elizabeth Hospital's pediatric department, a "Christmas Party" on Dec. 20 for youngsters confined in the local hospital and to purchase clothing items, toys and other gifts for needy children in the Quad-Cities.

Presley explained that a list containing the names of children of impoverished families was presented yesterday morning to James Jeffries, Jaycee president, by Capt. Harold F. Thomas, local Salvation Army commander.

Supernatural 'Trip' For GC Rotary Club

Granite City Rotarians enjoyed a trip into the realm of the supernatural Tuesday afternoon, conducted by Gordon J. Honer, a noted authority on extra-sensory perception.

The guest speaker, who was introduced by Herbert Schermer, program chairman, presented several demonstrations and discussed research being which contained a headline appearing in Tuesday's Globe-Democrat. Hoener had written and mailed the contents Nov. 21 to Schermer, with the envelope remaining sealed and in a locked metal box until opened by a Rotary club member on Tuesday. Predicted in the letter was the headline which stated that McNamara was nominated to head the World Bank. Hoener, whose program was

The bills would give postal employees a 6% increase retroactive to Oct. 1 and other federal workers 4.5%. Postal workers would get another 5% increase on July 1 and other civil service employees 5%. Military personnel would receive increases of 4.5% retroactive to Oct. 1.

Under the postal rate bills, first class letters would be increased from 5 to 6 cents and airmail letters from 8 to 10 cents.

Roca Club Reviews Activities of Month

Roca Young Men's Club met Wednesday evening at the Moose Lodge for their regular meeting.

A review of past activities was given as they attended the Penton Church as a group on Sunday, and they attended the All Star high school football game at Busch stadium on Saturday.

This Sunday, the boys will assist the Girl Scouts in their charity project of delivering baskets of food to the needy for the holiday season.

Tentative plans were discussed for their annual Christmas party.

'Tree of Lights' Campaign Donations Total $1456

The annual "Tree of Lights" fund campaign to provide holiday food baskets to needy Quad-City area families now has donations of $1456 toward the $6000 goal, it was reported by Allen Jesse, chairman, who said 56 lights now are burning on the tree in Memorial Park.

Donations are being accepted by Jesse and Salvation Army Capt. Harold F. Thomas, and food basket applications are being accepted at the Salvation Army's special office quarters, 1238 Nineteenth street, near Delmar avenue, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. each week. Tomorrow is the deadline for making application for a basket, Capt. Thomas said.

A $25 donation turns on a Yule tree light.

Gateway Council Plans Center for Area Plan Data

Plans for establishment of a central clearing house for governmental information for use by area governments and citizens were announced by the East-West Gateway Coordinating Council in its annual meeting in St. Louis.

St. Louis County Supervisor Lawrence K. Roos, outgoing chairman, said Control Data Corp. of Minneapolis, has been retained to help compile and handle the data. Cost of the project is estimated at $40,000.

A review of the council's activities during the two years of its existence highlighted the program during which Mr. Roos, council chairman for the two years it has been in operation, was succeeded as chairman by Mayor Alvin G. Fields of East St. Louis.

Required by Government

The council was formed to comply with the federal government's requirement for a regional planning agency as a condition to continuation of federal aid to highways in this area.

Roos noted that such a guiding agency was necessary to prevent "parochial considerations from dividing us."

Roos said that "if we remain united, then Metropolitan St. Louis faces a bright future."

The Gateway council also covers Madison, St. Clair and Monroe counties on the Illinois side of the river.

Mayor Fields pointed out that in the beginning some area communities were concerned about the possibility of losing home rule through creation of the council.

Toys on Furnace, Air Exhaust Cause Flames

Firemen responded to an alarm at 5:30 Wednesday at the home of Edward Robertson, 1507 Lindell blvd., where toys setting on top of a floor furnace produced smoke. There was no estimate of loss.

At 8:40 p.m. Wednesday, firemen were called twice to Niebur's shoe store, 1315 Nineteenth street, where a mixture of hot and cold air produced a visible exhaust in the water tower. The unit was shut off, and there was no damage.

School Crossing Guards Ask For Paid Holidays, Vacations

Seven paid holidays and paid vacations were requested by school crossing guards in a letter to the Granite City council Monday night.

The letter signed by 14 guards was referred to the council's Finance committee to determine the cost of the requests. It was pointed out that, if approved the city would not be able to undertake the policies until next fiscal year, since there is no appropriation of such funds this year.

Paid holidays requested are Labor Day, Thanksgiving, Christmas, New Year's Day, Lincoln's Birthday, Good Friday and Memorial Day.

The vacation proposal is for one week after one-year full-time service and two weeks after three years, with the vacations to be taken at the close of school.

Brief Comments

The only aldermen to comment on the proposal were Boyd and Nomm. Boyd called for the study by the committee, while Nomm said he favored the paid holidays but did not think the city could afford the paid vacation request.

Alderman Moertien, chairman of the Pollution Plant committee, reported that the committee is to meet with representatives of the Operating Engineers Union to discuss back pay and other employee matters.

Authorization was given Mayor Partney to confer with the Animal Shelter Board on hiring an assistant for the city humane officer.

A petition submitted by John H. Dufford for rezoning a tract for the Village Apartments adjacent to the Eighth Addition to Cloverview and the McFarland tract south of Ponton road was referred to the City Plan Commission. The request is to change the zoning from R-4 to R-5 for apartments.

An amendment to the zoning code to permit construction of a building at 2238 Illinois avenue for a laundromat was approved for Upton Gardner. The change was authorized by the City Plan Commission for a C-1 commercial designation from an R-4 residential.

Abandoned Trucks

A request was made by Alderman Nomm for an ordinance

ment to the ordinance controlling abandoned vehicles to specify that no truck be allowed to be parked or to stand in a residential area unless for construction purposes.

Clarification is being sought on the precise location of the 24th street boundary line between the Third and Fourth Wards. The question arose Monday night when a driveway request was received along the 24th street parkway at Delmar avenue, and the exact location of the ward boundary was not pinpointed on a map. The city clerk was asked to determine the location.

Permission was given Amco Plumbing & Heating Co. to widen the area with a driveway by four feet to permit parking of its vehicles. Three or four cars or trucks have been side-swiped in recent weeks.

Supt. of Streets William Ward invited aldermen to view a demonstration of a new and faster sewer cleaning machine at the city garage at 10 a.m. Saturday.

Permission was given Christ Ambassador group of Glenview Chapel Assembly of God Church to sell holiday candies on downtown street corners and at Belleme Village shopping center on Fridays. The request was by Mrs. Robert Parke, president of the young people's group.

Notification was received from East St. Louis Interurban Water Co. that a fire hydrant has been installed at Memorial Park opposite St. Elizabeth Hospital at Madison and Niedringhaus avenues.

Purchase of a desk, chair and two filing cabinets for the city hall was approved on a $233 bid from Triangle Typewriter Co. Other bids were $207 by Graham's Book store and $306 by Bushard Bros. Co.

Use of Zip Code Speeds Holiday Mail Delivery

During the holiday season, the Granite City post office staff will deliver about 25,000 pounds of mail and process an even greater amount for delivery in other locations. Postmaster W. T. Overbeck said today.

In making the announcement of the expectation of a record amount of mail, Overbeck said he is requesting the continued "fine cooperation that has been experienced in the past."

He is suggesting local residents "shop early to give postal employees a helping hand. ZIP Mail early and use ZIP code numbers," he added.

He explained a piece of non-delivered mail may be handled as many as 10 or 12 times from deposit in the corner mail box until delivery, while ZIP coded mail is handled about half that number.

"The number of individual actions required by the postal service during this season is astronomical on a nationwide basis when you figure hundreds of millions of pounds of mail will be handled during the Christmas Season," Overbeck stated.

Gloria Caban Conducts Civil Engineering Work

Miss Gloria L. Caban of Granite City, a junior majoring in civil engineering at the University of Illinois, currently is conducting a research project with two professors and a graduate student in connection with her studies.

The research, in the newly dedicated civil engineering building on the Urbana campus, involves testing a model of multi-story reinforced concrete structural frames which contain infilled solid masonry panels.

Tests will be conducted to determine the influence of the brick work on the strength and stiffness of the concrete frames when subjected to forces as wind or blast pressures. Test models are constructed to a one-eighth scale, thereby reducing a normal five-story building to eight-foot-tall models.

The current model has been tested and the various gages have recorded the pressures and forces. All measurements are recorded and the cracks that appear in the panels and frames are marked and studied as part of the research.

She currently is working with Prof. M. A. Sozen, Prof. W. L. Gamble and A. E. Fiorato, a graduate student.

Miss Caban is one of five women students in civil engineering. She is an Edmund J. James scholar, which is an all-university honorary. During her freshman year she completed her academic studies in an exceptional manner to be invited to join the Alpha Lambda Delta honor organization. Currently she is chairman of

Youths React to Benefit Stage Show for ALSAC

By LESLIE HENDRIX
And TERRY SEDLACK

(Editors note: The following is an account by two Granite City high school students of a recent benefit show staged in St. Louis for Aiding Leukemia Stricken American Children.)

"Stop! Listen! Beware!" These were three of the many wise words issued to the people of the world by a turtle, Al Nichols by name.

"To say there is a degeneration in our society or in a number of our subcultures would be false because there is more love in the world now than there has ever been, maybe because there is more awareness and knowledge than ever before. The hate and prejudice is also overwhelming."

That was the statement issued by Mr. Nichols during a brief talk.

With a clumping of lights and excited murmuring of an immense throng, the 1987 ALSAC show began. It was to help support a children's research hospital in Memphis, Tenn., built by entertainer Danny Thomas with the help of American teenagers and other donors.

The 15,000 teenagers attending the show were entertained by such talent as Danny Thomas, The Turtles, The Young Rascals, Mitch Ryder and The Detroit Wheels, Tommy James and the Shondells, Bobby Vee, the Monfort Mission, Walter Scott, the official ALSAC band and radio personalities.

The show lasted from 3:25 to 7:25 p.m. The atmosphere was that of "Love and the Joy of Giving."

The St. Louis area was No. 1 with a total contribution of $104,000, and at the time of that statement they were still counting. We equalled or exceeded such cities as Los Angeles, New York and Chicago.

Among the performers interviewed was Dino Danelli, Rascal drummer. The Rascals will soon tour Europe, where they will be ambassadors of good will and love.

The Detroit Wheels, who had just completed a back-breaking schedule which for 56 hours did not include sleep, used their early Sunday morning to drive to St. Louis from New Mexico to entertain the marchers and fulfill their commitment to Mr. Thomas. Since this was a benefit, no skeptic can say they did it for the money.

All seats are reserved. Reservations and ticket information may be obtained by calling the box office, 652-5823. Tickets are $2 for the general public and $1.25 for students.

To everyone concerned it was an exhibition of giving—spiritually, mentally and physically.

Downtown Stores in GC To Stay Closed Sundays

Downtown Granite City retail stores will continue the policy of being closed on Sundays. The store proprietors reached the decision after considering a proposal to be open on the two Sundays preceding Christmas and hearing a request by the Quad-Cities Ministerial Association.

As a result of the request, the Downtown Retailers Association has rescinded an earlier decision for Sunday openings in December, according to Homer Huber, president of the retailers group.

In its request to the Downtown Retailers Association that it forego plans for Sunday operations, Rev. Paul Sims, chairman of the Alliance's Social Concerns committee, said the Alliance opposes Sunday operations on five points of religious principle and urged the retailers "to refuse to yield to the pressure of a few additional dollars and, instead, take action that will be for the greater good of the entire community."

To Seek Sunday Closing
The formal request said, in part:

"In expressing the foregoing concerns, we are keenly aware of the fact that some business establishments have already disregarded these national and community traditions (as well as our earnest requests and recommendations) by being open for business on Sunday. Some have done so for a long period of time.

"In all frankness, we must admit that we have been negligent in our attack on these wrongs although we have clearly stated our position on more than one occasion. We are moved to action now by the fact that a fire which has been somewhat contained threatens to burst forth into a major conflagration."

The Alliance said it is making a request of those retailers who operate on Sundays to discontinue the practice and that "we further intend to do all within our power to bring about the closing of these stores on Sunday. Specific steps toward this end cannot be announced until further action is considered by the entire Ministerial Association; however, we do pledge our renewed effort to secure the closing of all non-essential commercial establishments on Sunday."

GC Council to Caucus on Lawsuits, Water Franchise

Arrangements for two caucus sessions were made Monday night by Granite City Council members to review a proposed franchise with East St. Louis & Interurban Water Co. and to hear a report on lawsuits pending against the city and scheduled to be heard in January.

Alderman Fry, chairman of the Fire and Water committee, advised council members his committee would be submitting the water company franchise to the council for first reading next Monday night and asked for a caucus in advance of the meeting to review the details.

Council members agreed to meet at 7 p.m. for the review and possible revision prior to presentation of the proposal. The meeting with Assistant City Atty. Norman Kinder to review pending lawsuits is being scheduled for Dec. 11. Kinder appeared at Monday night's meeting and said several serious cases are to be on the January docket of the courts and that he would like to go over them with the council members.

Included is suit filed over a traffic accident in which four persons were hurt when the traffic signals at 27th street and Madison avenue apparently were not operating properly. Kinder was asked to report on possible appeal of an $11,750 judgment awarded to Mrs. Marion Hoy for injuries suffered in a sidewalk fall on State street. The lawyer said the appeal period had passed and that a motion for a lower figure had been denied by Judge Austin Lewis.

In further discussion of the water franchise, Alderman Nomm and Green inquired if two-inch lines serving sections of West Granite and the North Granite area could be enlarged. Nomm also called for replacement of a fire hydrant to serve homes on Independence drive.

Holiday Jitters Can Be Dangerous

Christmas excitement is all part of the season's fun, but parents beware. Overexcitement in your children while they're waiting for Santa can result in:

ACCIDENT PRONENESS—Preoccupation with the "Big Day" makes kids forget basic safety rules. They run in front of cars, trip on stairs, and fall off bicycles with alarmingly greater frequency than at any other time of the year.

MEDICAL DISTURBANCE—Chronic diarrhea, vomiting and fickle appetites are also common. All too frequently, a good night's sleep is interrupted by the pre-season excitement.

In young children, whose body chemistry is going a mile-a-minute, this violent interruption of good health regimen can lower their efficiency in school, reduce resistance to infection, and wreak havoc with their nervous system.

In "high strung," nervous children, especially, the pre-Christmas experience can actually become what psychiatrists call "psychologic trauma"—one that might trigger or worsen an emotional disturbance.

To avoid these pre-Christmas problems, parents would do well to take three steps:

1. Share an interest in your child's Christmas wishes. Look over the toy catalogs with him frequently, and listen attentively when he talks about his dream gift. This procedure will do a lot to help relieve his tensions.

2. Avoid "teasing" your child about whether or not he will receive the gift of his dreams. Some parents delight in telling him that he won't get it, to make the gift a greater surprise at Christmas. Actually, all they're doing is creating a lot of needless apprehension and unhappiness. If he asks about his gift it's better to answer, "We'll see."

3. Involve him in some constructive phase of pre-season planning, such as purchasing wrapping paper or helping select gifts. It will not only take his mind off his own desires, but demonstrate to him that "giving" instead of "receiving" is the true spirit of Christmas.

The current season is the greatest season of the year for your child. Keep it that way, by keeping him healthy.

Pack Four Inducts 10 New Cub Scouts

Ten new Cub Scouts were inducted at the meeting of Cub Pack Four Tuesday evening in Logan school auditorium.

Cubmaster James Reynolds Reynolds conducted the initiation ceremony and presented Bobcat pins to Dennis Shemwell, Danny Stiefel, Lynn Harris, Bryan Payne, Jesse Bone, Danny Fricke, Kevin Hurst, Jeffery Kinder, Mike Siglake and Tony Turner.

Reynolds introduced Odum Harris, who will serve as assistant cubmaster. Also presented were Mrs. Judy DeLozia, a new den mother, and her assistant, Mrs. Carolyn Reynolds, and a new member of the executive committee, Robert DeLozia.

It was announced that Pack Four cub scouts will tour Granite City police headquarters after school Monday, and a committee meeting will be held at the Reynolds residence, 2212 Missouri avenue, at 7 p.m. Dec. 12.

Plans were discussed for a candy sale to raise funds for future pack activities.

The Christmas pack meeting will be held at 7 p.m. Thursday, Dec. 21, at Logan school, Reynolds said.

Arrest Venice Boy On Weapon Charge

A 15-year-old Venice boy was arrested by Venice police at 3 p.m. Monday and charged with unlawful use of a weapon after the youngster brandished the knife in a Venice cafe and threatened to kill another boy.

Police said they were called to the D & S Cafe at 1100 Douglas street where Mrs. Marcella Daffin, cafe operator, told them the boy had come to the cafe with a knife. She said the boy also had threatened her previously. The youngster was disarmed by a woman employee in the cafe and turned over to police.

A juvenile card was filed against the boy and he was released in custody of his mother.

STAMP OUT 'OUTLAW' MOTORCYCLE IMAGE

To the Editor:

I wish to express my views regarding the lack of interest and concern about a national motorcycle event held in this area.

The event I have reference to is the National 24-Hour Marathon Championship held in Melville, Mo., St. Louis county. This annual event is sponsored by the St. Louis Cycles Motorcycle Club, an all-women motorcycle club, and sanctioned by the American Motorcycle Association.

The dealers in the greater St. Louis area could show a lot more interest and concern by sponsoring riders and publicizing this event. It is a shame that very few dealers do this now. This would be of profit to the dealers and to the image of motorcycling.

The press does not show enough interest, either. There is too little coverage of all national motorcycling events. Yet, when outlaw motorcycle gangs are doing something wrong, it makes the headlines. This is a shame.

This event draws riders and families from all over the nation. However, these riders, who are decent and enjoy the sport of riding, are very seldom mentioned. What can we do about this? It is up to you to see that decent riders get a chance. Won't you please use my stamp out the outlaw image?

KEEP WARY EYE ON GOVERNMENTAL POWER

To the Editor:

The executive branch of our federal government is jeopardizing our freedom by acquiring excessive power, in violation of our constitution.

It is a free people's duty to stand guard against every attempt by the forces of organized tyranny to expand. To carry out this duty and to preserve our liberties, citizens must watch warily every government, including their own, because every government is bent on using itself the seeds of tyranny.

Many well-meaning people are shocked at the thought that free Americans should keep close eyes on their government. But distrust of government was commonplace when America was born; it was written into our national Bill of Rights.

Distrust arose from hard experience with the wiles of tyrants and the nature of man. The general revolt against the power of kings began in the revolution was a great uprising against the power of monarchy.

Its success was a milestone in history. It seemed final victory had been won over the menace of governmental power, and that future generations would never need to fear only foreign invaders.

However, the wisest of our early leaders, such as Washington, Jefferson, Adams and Franklin, warned against this easy optimism. They saw threat to every nation against freedom, they said, is perpetual. And they were tragically correct.

The 20th century developed a new justification for government benevolence. It was contended that the people could be well enough for themselves. The government stepped in to help them, using whatever power necessary.

This argument for unlimited government power would not have fooled America's founders for a minute. It would not fool us today if it were not accompanied by the idea that we no longer need to distrust government because it is in the hands of the people.

We cannot afford to assume that government, with its monopoly of force, will always respect our rights and liberties—unless we are eager to defend them.

The more opportunities we give government to abuse its powers, the more likely it is that our liberties will be destroyed. The administrators today is close to a monarchy.

MADISON NEEDS LEAGUE FOR BETTER EDUCATION

To the Editor:

I am a citizen of the city of Madison and a parent of children in Madison high school. Several weeks have now passed, and the Madison community and School District No. 12 seem no nearer solving the problems before them.

The school board's reversal of its decision to bar 14 Negro athletes from participation in interscholastic competition came under alleged pressure of threat. This has led to a disenchanted white community.

Racial lines are not more sharply drawn, and other issues have entered the picture. Among these are the resignation of the present school board, and a general feeling of dissatisfaction with Madison life, education and government.

Who is to blame for this disruption of community life? Certainly all present in both races who have stood silently on school affairs have gone unnoticed.

Surely, the school board, which admits lack of knowledge about school rules and an absence of involvement in the administration of the schools.

Certainly, the superintendent and principals who have not been aware, or have wanted to be aware, of the needs of all students, and have been lax in enforcement of rules upon all students, regardless of race.

Certainly, all citizens of Madison and School District 12, who have been unconcerned about community life and the education of the youth.

A simpler question would be, who is to blame? The answer would, of course, be: All are to blame.

Then where do we in Madison and School District 12 move from here? Do we act as white people and Negro people? Do we act as parents? Do we act as citizens? Do we act as political axes to grind? No.

Let all the citizens of Madison and School District 12, regardless of race, come together and form a "League for Better Education and Government."

Such a League would be non-partisan in politics. On education it could: (a) promote high quality education through a qualified school board and qualified administrators; (b) encourage the best in the faculties at all schools; and (c) stand for better salaries for qualified teachers.

In government, it could: (a) become active in city council meetings, raising questions for clarification in matters of city administration; (b) support individual merit, rather than based on party loyalty; (c) establish a forum for the free and open discussion of city problems and financing; and (d) become a means by which all candidates for office may have an opportunity to debate and state their positions on issues important to community life.

I believe that the establishment of a League for Better Education and Government would be a giant step in the direction of saving the community of Madison from decay and chaos, and bring about a community with civil order and progress.

Entire Community Mourns, Reverses Heroic Quad-City War Dead in Vietnam

Vietnam, geographically distant from the Quad-Cities, is a "local story" due to the hundreds of Granite City, Madison, Venice, Mitchell and Clinton Beach residents serving there. The extent of its local impact struck with stunning suddenness again this week with the disclosure that three Quad-City paratroopers had lost their lives during the successful fight for Hill 875 at Dak To in South Vietnam.

Such a tragic development is not new, in one sense. Combat service by local men can be traced back to the Spanish-American War and even to the Civil War. Quad-City men were involved in most of the hot spots during World War II and the Korean War, and there was even a local serviceman aboard the military plane that struck the Empire State Building in New York City.

Young men from the Quad-Cities seem to always be "where the action is" in wartime defense of freedom. And those currently risking and sacrificing their lives in Vietnam are exhibiting dedication and valor that ranks with the greatest examples of heroism ever recorded anywhere.

As the flag-draped caskets arrive here, returning the war dead to the homeland and to the community which they so nobly represented, all on the "home front" should pause in their endeavors and accord them appropriate recognition.

Each of the fallen heroes qualifies as a friend and a neighbor even to those Quad-City men with whom they were not acquainted. The chapels where their eulogies are heard should be filled to overflowing.

A sense of humor is what makes you laugh at something which would make you angry if it happened to you.

Brighten Christmas By Lighting The Local Salvation Army Tree

Much of the enjoyment of Christmas comes from making the season happier for others, and the Salvation Army "Tree of Lights" campaign again this year offers an opportunity to do just that.

By lighting bulbs on a tree in Memorial Park through $25 contributions, Quad-Cityans can assure Yuletide food baskets for those most in need of help due to illness or other unforeseen circumstances.

It will be a brighter Christmas for the entire local community if all 240 lights are burning before the holiday arrives.

Seeds A Potential Solution for World Shortage of Steak, Milk

(American Chemical Society) Scientists are literally beating the bushes in their search for a solution to the world's protein shortage.

From Africa, to India, to the United States, wild and unfamiliar plant seeds are being collected to discover new sources of protein.

The collected seeds are sent to the U. S. Department of Agriculture, where chemists analyze them for protein content.

Dietary Essentials To date, 379 species of the 4000 examined have shown high enough protein content to qualify for the next step—amino acid analysis.

These are the building blocks of proteins, and human beings require eight essential amino acids in their diet.

The eight that are required cannot be manufactured by the body, and no one plant can furnish all eight in sufficient quantity. However, a combination of plants could.

The results of the amino acid analysis of the 379 species are reported by Cecil H. VanEtten, a chemist at the U. S. Department of Agriculture's Agricultural Research Service, Peoria, Ill.

Using eggs, the ideal protein food, as the standard for comparison, VanEtten concludes that "Proteins from some of the 379 species have a better pattern of essential amino acids than many currently used seed sources. Most of the plants would serve as good sources of seed protein if they could be grown, harvested and processed efficiently."

A problem, though, is that

Unions, SIU-SW Cooperating to Provide Leadership Training

The Labor Institute in progress at SIU-SW is another illustration of the many-faceted effect of the local university on this and other nearby communities.

Aided by a labor steering committee headed by Clyde Boyd, district labor education coordinator of the United Steelworkers, the institute was launched this fall under joint sponsorship of the university and union organizations in this area. Classes are held both on and off the campus.

As a result of the program, union agents, stewards and members are obtaining increased leadership and procedural training, enabling locals and brotherhoods to better serve both their membership and the public.

Mitchell Area Legal Clarification

Regardless of whether the western Mitchell area eventually votes for or against incorporating as the village of Chouteau, it is important that the voting be based on accurate legal information.

If it can clarify the laws relating to city and village incorporations and annexations, the public meeting set for 2 p.m. Sunday at the Mitchell parish hall on Chain Road can prove helpful to those residing in and near the proposed village. All who can attend may find it well worth their time to do so.

Christmas Decorating Show Next Week

Christmas and the annual holiday decorating show by the Granite City school system is a dependable event.

Thanks to advance preparation by students and faculty members, another outstanding display of gift wrapping, door and centerpiece ideas has been assembled for presentation to the public at 7:30 p.m. Monday, Dec. 4, in the Granite City high school auditorium.

It will be a real treat for the large gathering that is attracted each year.

No Time Should Be Lost in Beginning Task of Redistricting Granite City

Granite City council members should lose no time in determining new ward boundaries, in fairness to themselves and to potential aldermanic candidates.

Although the original redistricting court order set a Dec. 1, 1968, deadline, only about four months prior to the next municipal election in April 1969, a minimum of six months is needed by possible candidates to adjust to new ward boundaries, decide whether to run, file petitions and seek voter support.

Whether Mayor Partney's idea of a committee of eight council members can get the job done is a moot question. If efforts begin now and the group fails to reach agreement, there would be time left to bring in assistance from outside the council.

There appears to be no reasonable alternative to forming seven wards out of the present eight. Now that the courts are involved and a new census has verified that the city population is less than 50,000, it is too late to ignore the issue; anyone could file suit at any time for the city to carry out its redistricting duty; appellate judges made clear in their October ruling.

A repetition of the spring 1967 ballot confusion is unthinkable and we strongly doubt that even the possibility would be tolerated by voters, since it so clearly can be avoided.

City fathers have the court documents, block-by-block population counts and all other necessary tools at their disposal for an early start on realistic and logical ward reapportionment. There is no reason to delay, and every reason to expedite the task.

New Superstitions Replacing Old

(Today's Health Guide) Old superstitions, unlike old soldiers, do not fade away. They are replaced by new superstitions and new misconceptions.

This is particularly true of superstitions and misconceptions about health. New scientific advances and discoveries breed a new crop of health superstitions.

Some of the new ones are: Today, we have the mistaken idea that necessary and harmful chemicals are used in processing foodstuffs may cause mysterious diseases like cancer. (They won't.)

We are afraid to cook with aluminum utensils for fear of poisoning the food. (They will not.)

We observe people who refuse to wear glasses, and others who shun much-needed hearing aids. (Both are completely accepted by society today.)

People oppose fluoridation of public water supplies because the same chemical has also been used for poisoning rats, overlooking the fact that the whole difference lies in the matter of dosage. (Fluoridated water is completely safe.)

Many people blame climatic changes on the atomic bomb; past generations attributed changes to artillery fire, to the use of radio and television.

There is a modern cult of naturalism which holds that only "natural foods" are wholesome because foods grown with the aid of chemical fertilizers are inadequate. (This isn't true.)

Many a hardy pre-judice against frozen or otherwise processed foods, and even advocate eating raw food exclusively. (concentrated low-pollage, variety and local production, nor does proper cooking.)

Peaceful Dissent A Vital Right But Patriotism Is Not Outdated

(U. S. Department of State)

I am an American disturbed with my fellow generation that has mocked Secretary Rusk with his policies toward Vietnam.

I am looking for an answer, and I appeal to you to give me an answer.

Are the basic principles under which this country was founded outdated?

Is what I have been taught since the first grade—to respect the flag, to have a patriotic feeling—a bunch of hogwash?

My generation has lost the idea that made this country great: respect for one's fellow man.

I am a disturbed, corny, confused and sick American. I am disturbed with people who think the basic American principle is, and sick of my generation being too educated to accept the basic old-fashioned beliefs that made this country great.

R. H.

Dear Mr. H: The second paragraph of the Declaration of Independence is one of the great distillations of the philosophical tenets held by our forefathers. It is the culmination of the Revolution and our independence.

Those lines in which so very much is said about man's relationship to his fellow man, his government and his God reveal what still constitutes the fabric of our constitutional beliefs.

Many thoughtful Americans disagree with our government's policies in Vietnam. They present criticisms and actions try the fabric of our constitutionalism; they do not tear it.

Those who disagree with policy to do less than express their opposition, they would be untrue to their responsibilities as citizens.

Door-to-Door Sales Contract Can Be Voided Under New Law

(Tri-City and Illinois Bar Associations)

It's now legal in Illinois to change your mind and void a purchase made from a door-to-door salesman, under certain conditions.

You may cancel a door-to-door sale if you have signed a contract or made a down payment or full payment for merchandise provided:

1. The cash sale price of the merchandise is $50 or more.

2. The sale is a result of a telephone call or a contract originally made at your residence by a sales person, which was not solicited by you.

Within three days after the sale, the seller must give you a written notice of your right to void the sale or contract for the sale was made.

Any merchandise delivered to you is returned to the seller in the condition in which you received it.

The three-day period during

This is evident from a reading of that same paragraph of the Declaration which was previously mentioned. Secretary Rusk has said that "... in our kind of free society there must be complete freedom of expression, the opportunity for dissent, the right lawfully and peacefully to register one's dissent against the government of the country."

"We hold these truths to be self-evident—that all men are created equal; that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights; that among these are life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness."

"That, to secure these rights, governments are instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed."

"Whenever any form of government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the right of the people to alter or to abolish it, to institute a new government, laying its foundation on such principles, and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their safety and happiness."

"Prudence, indeed, will dictate that governments long established should not be changed for light and transient causes; and accordingly all experience has shown that mankind are more disposed to suffer, while evils are sufferable, than to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed."

"But when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same object, evinces a design to reduce them under absolute despotism, it is their right, it is their duty, to throw off such government and to provide new guards for their future security."

which you may void the sale excludes any Sunday or holiday and does not start until the seller has furnished a telephone number or address at which such notification may be given.

The seller must return any money you may have advanced and is prohibited under "any undue influence, coercion, intimidation, or misrepresentation, or any other willful act..." to interfere with your right to void the sale or contract.

The seller may not withhold any amount of a down payment as "damages" because you changed your mind.

The law applies both to door-to-door sales for cash and to those made under a contract.

Church Influence Decreasing?

(Gallatin, Mo., Democrat & North Missouri)

Serious thought is warranted by the results of one of the latest polls, which shows that the influence of the church in the United States is waning rapidly.

The poll results are so clear, and the trend in the past 10 years so overwhelming, that it can hardly be contested.

In the last decade, the poll asked Americans the same questions on four occasions. In 1957, over 60% of those answering thought the church was increasing in influence.

In 1962, the margin had dropped to 45%. In 1965, it was down to 33%. Now it is only 28%.

In churches, in 1957, over 14% of churches were losing influence. In 1962, nearly 31% of churches were losing influence. In 1965, those who believed church influence was declining had reached 45%, and now it is 57%.

These are disturbing figures, and indicate beyond much doubt that churches are losing influence.

Cereals were found low in lysine and average or high in methionine, while legumes (pea-bearing plants such as peas and beans) were high in lysine but low in methionine.

The amounts of other amino acids such as leucine, phenylalanine, threonine and valine were found generally adequate.

Advantages of food protein from seeds are their easily digestible, concentrated low-pollage, variety and local production.

and church leaders face a critical decision, either adapting to circumstances and the new social order, or continuing to lose influence on the people of the country.

One of the more somber results of the poll was the finding that young people are taking a more pessimistic view on the church's influence than older people.

The issue is squarely up to church officials and church leaders.

We realize in our community that the findings of a national poll do not necessarily apply to our situation, and hopefully the outlook in the metropolis area is not as dismal as it is on a national level. But the handwriting is on the wall.

Sooner or later, all areas of the country are "affected" by the social changes which become national in scope.

It seems clear that Americans are not going to be satisfied with archaic or inflexible rules and totalitarian organization. And it is already late for this realization to be faced.

25 YEARS AGO

NOVEMBER 30, 1942

Miss Julia Pitchford of Granite City, who won two national speech tournaments as a high school student and staged two years at Northwestern University, has advanced from the Griffith Williams and Johnnie Scott Davis bands to principal singer with Kay Kyser's orchestra.

She has sung in almost every Army camp in America this year and is now in Hollywood for a Kay Kyser motion picture.

The Tri-City Canning and Gardening Commission reports 61,288 cans of fruit and vegetables prepared here this year, an increase of 23,268 cans over the previous year.

American Legion Post 113 will honor members of the non-salaried Selective Service board and medical officials Dec. 7. About 150 are expected to attend the turkey dinner.

50 YEARS AGO

NOVEMBER 30, 1917

A "national roly poly" dance will be held Saturday evening at the Moose hall.

A capacity attendance is expected tonight at the Masonic Temple, 20th and C streets, to hear L. R. Yeaman present the famous retail merchandising lecture of the National Cash Register Co. It will be the first time it has been given here. The gathering also will see a film, "Troubles of Merchants and How to Stop Them."

St. Peter's Evangelical Church is the first local church to prepare a service flag. It honors the four boys of the congregation now serving in the Army: Capt. Taylor, Ky.

Three hundred Madison and St. Clair counties grocers attended a course on helping the U. S. government conserve and helping educate the general public to be more saving. A warning against wartime food profiteering was issued.

A national Red Cross membership of 15 million is being sought to help the millions of American soldiers who will spend this winter in France, some of them sick, wounded or prisoners. Knitwear is being urged to make extra socks and hats to help them keep warm. Hospital supplies and dressings are being shipped overseas in large quantities.

St. Mary's Guild of St. Bartholomew's Church celebrated its second anniversary at the home of the Misses Pick.

Approximately 165 members and guests of Granite Chapter 650, Order of the Eastern Star, gathered at the Masonic Temple on Monday evening for the 56th annual installation ceremony of new chapter officials.

Mrs. Grover (Marjorie) Brannam was installed as worthy matron and Joseph Timmons as worthy patron.

Other new chapter officers installed were Mrs. Cora Hetlich, associate matron; John DeHart, associate patron; Mary Ellen Lewis, secretary; Hannah Kleinschmidt, treasurer; Mary Bibbey, conductress; Mary Ann DeHart, chaplain; Betty Elbrecht, marshal; Hilda Griffith, organist; Maxine Burgess, Adah; Myrna Greer, Ruth; Janet L. The new worthy matron was presented at the altar attired in a green lace over gold satinette gown, designed with a scalloped neckline and hem. Gold candles in white candelabra and a profusion of yellow chrysanthemums decorated the Chapter Room, with a violin and arrangements of bronze 'mums and greenery completing the attractive decor.

Presentation of the American Flag was conducted by Ray Penn and the "Ode to the Flag" was given by Thomas Kalbach.

Mrs. Muriel Wood, soloist, accompanied by Robert McDaniel, sang "Climb Every Mountain." The organist also provided accompaniment for members of Job's Daughters, Bethel 43, who formed the Cross and sang, "Nearer My God to Thee."

Mrs. Brannam was presented a bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums by her husband, Grover, who serves as master of Granite City Masonic Lodge 877.

As the new worthy patron was presented at the altar, Mrs. Wood sang, "How Great Thou Art," after which he received a boutonniere from his daughter, Annette Timmons.

An escort line was formed in the East by eight members of the Shrine's Compact Unit and appropriate comments were made by the newly-installed officers and other chapter executives.

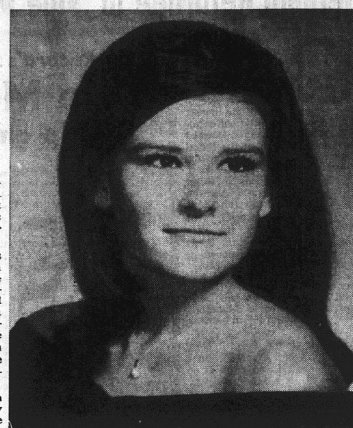

Fifteen past matrons and six past patrons were among those introduced. Other special guests, included Roy Wilimzig, Potentate of Almad Shrine; Preston Ridings, District Deputy Grand Master of the 5th Southern District of Illinois; and Max Clinard, Master of Emeth Lodge of East St. Louis.

Mrs. Vivian Blankenship and Harmon Presswood, immediate past matron and patron of Granite Chapter 650, were presented their jewels by Mrs. Mary Lou Simmons and Mrs. Helen Presswood.

Rev. Philip H. Powers of the Church of Christ, 2130 Clark avenue, offered the benediction.

Also participating in the ceremony was LaVerne Larsen, who served as Youth Guidance officer, while Amabelle Bartling and Bess Henley were in charge of programs.

A social hour was enjoyed in the Temple dining room, with refreshments served from tables covered with green net cloths and holding silver trays and coffee servers. A violin encircled with bronze mums was used as the centerpiece.

MISS SHERRY BAKER, whose engagement to Terry Lee Cassy is announced by the bride-elect's mother, Mrs. Fern Baker of Houston, Tex. Her fiancé's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Herschel R. Cassy, 3240 Rodger avenue. Wedding plans are indefinite at the present time.

THE STRIKES OVER! WE LOST 61 DAYS. WE HAVE A LOT OF CATCHING UP TO DO!

We're going to sell 12 months' worth of Fords in 10 months ...and here are 4 ways we're going to do it!

1. LTD and XL priced lower than last year! We did it by changing what comes as standard equipment ... and made it even easier to get what you want. Now LTD comes with a bigger V-8-302 cu. in. XL has a 240-cu. in. Six and a choice of 5 V-8's. Last year you could choose V-8's only. On LTD and XL 3-speed manual transmission is standard. Instead of SelectShift Cruise-O-Matic—now optional. Vinyl roof on 2-door LTD's and Comfort-Stream Ventilation are optional this year. Choose them now only if you want them. And hidden headlamps, strong disc brake grilles are all standard for '68.

2. Fastbacks priced the same as hardtops! Take your choice of full-sized or intermediate models, with no extra charge for fastback styling. See the handsome Torino GT fastback, with the luxury ride of a 116-in. wheelbase (longer than 38 competing intermediate models). Choice of bucket seats or full-width seats for six.

3. Wagons in three sizes—all available with Ford's two-way Magic Doorgate! Only Ford offers so wide a choice—and only Ford offers its Magic Doorgate with every model. It opens down for cargo—opens out for passengers—and it's only one of the many better ideas that make Ford first in wagon sales.

4. Mustang—the one car on the road you can't mistake for any other! The only one to offer you wall-to-wall carpeting, bucket seats, floor-mounted shift shift, functional hood louvers with turn indicators, and sport steering wheel—all standard. And only Mustang makes it happen at such an economical price! No wonder it's America's favorite sport car.

Hospitalized Vietnam Returnee in 'Yule Mail Call' List

A Vietnam returnee, now hospitalized in California with an ailment contracted six months ago in the swampy Delta country, together with a former life-long resident of Granite City who will spend his second Christmas in Germany and a local Navy man who recently was joined in Scotland by his bride of four months, are among the servicemen listed in today's "Yule Mail Call" report.

The condition of Marine Lance Corporal A. A. Bush, who has been confined for nearly two months at the U. S. Naval Hospital at Camp Pendleton, Calif., reportedly appears to be on the upswing.

However, the Madison Marine probably faces a six-month hospital stay, according to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Everett Bush of 2034 Hildebrand avenue, Madison.

L/Cpl Bush returned home from Vietnam in June, after serving in the battle zones for 12 months. About two months ago, he was found to be suffering with amebic dysentery and, apparently, was in serious condition when the ailment was first detected.

The serviceman was due to be released shortly from the Marine Corps, however, due to the serious nature of the illness, his parents recently were advised the youth may be forced to remain confined at the Naval Hospital for several months over his allotted service time.

L/Cpl. Bush, who attended Madison schools, will observe his 22nd birthday on Jan. 1.

Mrs. George Cochran, 1704 Moro avenue, notes that her son, George E. Cochran, U. S. Navy, currently is stationed in Scotland, where he was joined recently by his bride, the former Miss Ann Friezel of Montreal, Canada. The couple was married in July in Montreal, the serviceman's mother reports.

A letter to the Press-Record from Littleton, Colorado, submits the name and address of Airman First Class John L. Jones Jr., who will spend his second Christmas away from home in Bilburg, Germany.

The airman's parents write, "John resided in Granite City his entire life, prior to enlisting in the Air Force. He attended local schools and also Southern Illinois University - Carbondale campus."

Mr. and Mrs. John L. Jones Jr., now reside at 7226 South Dexter street, in Littleton, Colo. Relatives and friends of Quad-City military personnel still may provide the serviceman or woman's name and address to the Press-Record for inclusion in "Yule Mail Call."

Mrs. Lucy Shane, 79, Dies; 50-Year Resident

Mrs. Lucy Ann Shane, 79, of 2542 Grand avenue, died at 4:30 a.m. Tuesday in St. Elizabeth Hospital where she had been a patient 11 days since suffering a fracture to her right hip in a fall at home.

Mrs. Shane, whose husband, Edward, died Oct. 17, 1965, was born at Henderson, Ky., and lived here 50 years. She was a member of the Third Baptist Church.

Survivors include two daughters, Mrs. Alberta Hill and Mrs. Homer (Helen) Staub of Granite City; two sons, Owen Shane of East St. Louis; a sister, Mrs. Nora Gibson of Madison; two brothers, Winfrey Shane and Benny Chamberline of Granite City; seven grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

Services were held today. Further information is given in today's obituary column.

Yule Mail Call (Clip and Save)

Quad-City servicemen and women stationed around the world, whose names and addresses are being published in each issue of the Press-Record as a special pre-Christmas public service. It is suggested that readers clip-out and retain the lists as they appear.

Local residents are invited to include the servicemen on their Christmas mailing list and send greeting cards, letters or packages, thereby helping to brighten the coming holiday season for military personnel who are away from their homes and families. Early mailing is recommended.

Passenger Zone Ok'd at Hospital

Establishment of a passenger zone in front of St. Elizabeth Hospital on Madison avenue near the main entrance was approved Monday night by Granite City council members.

To provide space for vehicles to stop momentarily to discharge or pickup passengers, three parking meters are to be removed and the space marked as a "loading zone."

Recommended by the police department, the zone is to eliminate stops by cars on Madison avenue at the Niedringhaus hospital entrance which is a right turn lane and reserved for moving vehicles. The right turn lane extends for a distance of 100 feet south along the east side of Madison avenue from Niedringhaus avenue.

Fines for violation in the zone will be $3 if paid in a 24-hour period and $5 if the violator appears after 24 hours.

Another ordinance was adopted placing a stop sign on 30th street at Washington avenue to control eastbound traffic.

GC Council Approves $90,000 Fund Transfer Resolution

After several months debate, Granite City council members voted Monday night to eliminate the red bookkeeping figure in the city's maintenance of sewer account through fund transfers.

The controversial resolution that had been placed on first reading several times, rewritten and then amended, calls for a $90,000 transfer to the sewer maintenance account with $60,000 to be taken from the sales tax account and $30,000 from the working cash fund. Prime objector to the transfer is Alderman Moerlein, who is contesting the transfer from the working cash fund, stating that the council is acting illegally. He attempted to submit another amendment to the transfer resolution calling for the sales tax money to go to the working cash fund.

Finance committee chairman, Alderman Rutledge, contends the working cash fund has been repaid. Moerlein is stressing that any funds borrowed from working cash must be repaid at the time of the next tax collection.

Rutledge said the only proper method to handle the bookkeeping procedure would be to transfer the funds to the sewer maintenance account.

Debated Since Summer
The matter has been debated since last summer when City Treasurer E. R. Rich told council members he had received legal advice not to pay any bills from city accounts with deficits as it would be contrary to state law.

Approval of the fund transfer resolution was 10-to-6 and followed a 6-to-10 vote to defeat Moerlein's amendment.

Voting for the transfer were Aldermen Whitmer, Boyd, Poulos, Rutledge, Basarich, Nunn, Fry, Parnley, Jarrett and Dawes. Opposed were Dallas, Moerlein, Bartosik, Green, Robertson and Johnson.

Other Funds Low
Commenting on the monthly financial report for October, prepared by Comptroller Robert Stevens, Alderman Rutledge noted that other transfers would be needed in the near future.

"We're at the halfway mark of the fiscal year, and you'll note the balances are slim in the accounts for the police department, school crossing guards, city hall and general government."

The $90,000 fund transfer will wipe out the $81,702 deficit in the sewer maintenance account and leave a balance for payment of overdue bills. For the six-month period, the city spent $685,835 from its general fund, leaving a balance of $510,320. The sales tax balance on Oct. 31 was $82,367 and the balance in the working cash fund was $223,329.

Council members also approved a bill list totaling $17,497 and a half-month payroll of $7,113 Monday night.

Alderman Moerlein called for separation of the payment of $1000 to Dick H. Mudge, an Edwardsville lawyer who aided City Atty. Allen in the appeal of the election-redistricting suit filed against the city earlier this year.

Moerlein contended the $1000 was not appropriated and that such a payment would be illegal under state statute. He added that the hiring of Mudge had not been properly authorized by the council.

Adam Ebrecht, 65, Dies; Ill One Year

Adam R. Ebrecht, 65, of 2404 Grand avenue, succumbed to a one-year illness at 9:45 a.m. Tuesday at St. Luke's Hospital, St. Louis. He had been hospitalized 71 days.

A Granite City resident for 45 years, Mr. Ebrecht was born at Farmington, Mo., and had resided in that area prior to moving here. He had been employed as a machinist approximately 26 years in the Blast Furnace Division of Granite City Steel Co. Mr. Ebrecht was a member of Central Christian Church, where he formerly served as a deacon and elder. He was a 25-year member of the International Association of Machinists, Local 572.

He also held membership in the International Chemical Workers Union, Local 50; Granite City Masonic Lodge 877; and Gabriel Shrine 78, White Shrine of Jerusalem.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Dorotha Ebrecht; one son,

REX A. NILES

Rex Niles, Retired GCNS Teacher, Dies

Rex A. Niles, 65, of 1308 South 17th street, Lincoln, Neb., who retired from the Granite City high school faculty earlier this year, died about 8 p.m. Tuesday at Bryan Memorial Hospital in Lincoln. He had been in failing health with a heart ailment for the past six months and was admitted to the hospital ten days before his death.

A native of Lincoln, Neb., Mr. Niles was employed for 15 years as a vocational teacher at the local high school. He had retired at the conclusion of the 1966-67 school year.

Mr. Niles and his wife, Esther, who survives, had returned to Lincoln this summer to make their home. While a resident here, the former drafting teacher was a member of the First United Presbyterian Church. Previously, he had attended the Second Presbyterian Church of Lincoln.

Before joining the faculty at Granite City high school, Mr. Niles taught at Nebraska Wesleyan University in Lincoln and in the Lincoln public school system. He was a member of the Masonic Lodge of Lincoln.

Messide his wife, Mr. Niles is survived by one son, Douglas Niles, 2701 Center street, a daughter, Mrs. Clarence (Esther Lou) Busboom of Lincoln, Neb.; his father, A. J. Niles of Omaha, Neb.; one sister, Mrs. Freda Greer of Omaha; and two granddaughters, Diane and Lori Busboom, both of Lincoln. Funeral arrangements are given in today's obituary column.
